Dear Parents/guardians,

Despite the current circumstances we are ready to celebrate, 'World Book Day' remotely. We have a number of activities for you to take part in and we hope you enjoy them all.

Wednesday 3rd March

The link below is for you to sign up to a performance of, 'Arabian Nights.' This has been put together especially for World Book Day and there are two shows available depending on the age of your children. World Book Day performance for Primary Schools | Settle Stories

Thursday 4th March – World Book Day

Today we would like you to spend the day sharing and enjoying books together. The World Book Day website has many different activities for you to complete and competitions for you to take part in.

World Book Day | World Book Day is a registered charity. Our mission is to give every child and young person a book of their own.

Alongside this, we have signed up to a special performance through Manchester Literature Festival, written by SUE HENRA & PAUL LINNET called BUBBLY TRUBBLY! It is a hilarious spudtastic online show based on the new Supertato book! The link will be sent via text message the morning of the performance when it is live.

Competition/Quiz

1. Staff from across the school have come together to bring you, 'The Masked Reader.' There will be a video on our Youtube channel from Thursday 4th March, of the staff reading books (link will be sent via text). Your challenge is to unmask them. Write down who you think each mask reader it and send in your answers via your remote learning platform. Winners will be chosen, with prizes given out when we return to school.
2. We would like you to become the front cover of a book. Choose a book with a character on the front and immerse yourself in the front cover challenge. Winners will be chosen and prizes will be given when we are back in school. An example is on our website for you to view. Please send in pictures of your entry via your remote learning platforms or email (stphilips.ceprimaryschool@salford.gov.uk)

Book Tokens

These will be given out when we are back in school and can be used to buy one the available books, which you can see on our website.

Thank you for your continued support and we look forward to seeing all of your activities.
